

Saskatchewan
Prairie Conservation
Action Plan

2024 Native Prairie Appreciation Week Native Prairie Photo Contest Rules

Join us in celebrating Native Prairie Appreciation Week! Send us your best shot for a chance to win a prize!

Categories:

- Best Native Prairie Wildflower
- Best Wildlife in Action
- Best Native Prairie Landscape

Contest: Take a picture of native prairie and send it to us! One winner will be chosen in each category.

How to Enter:

Email your picture to npawcontest@gmail.com

Entry Deadline: June 14th, 2024 at 5 PM CST

Pictures that qualify (ie: are of native prairie) will be uploaded to an Album on Facebook and open to public voting.

Voting: June 16-21st, 2024 (ending at 5 PM CST)

The picture in each category with the most votes will receive a prize. Only votes on the uploaded picture in the PCAP official NPAW Photo Contest Album, during this time period will be counted. The Winners will be announced June 22nd, 2024.

Photos will be judged by the following criteria:

- Must contain native prairie or a species that lives on native prairie. For information about what native prairie is, please visit: <https://www.pcap-sk.org/upcoming-events/npaw>
- Photos that include crops or farming equipment will be disqualified.

Winners will be announced publicly after Native Prairie Appreciation Week. Prizes will be mailed to winners directly. All Photo winners must complete a release form. Winners will be contacted about their prize and release form.

Winning pictures will be displayed on the Saskatchewan Prairie Conservation Action Plan's Website, on the Native Prairie Appreciation Week page (<https://www.pcap-sk.org/upcoming-events/npaw>) as well as various other social media outlets.

Prizes are received by donation.

Prize Examples Include: Guide Books, Travel Mugs, Tote Bags, Note Books, Hats, Water Bottles, Gift Certificates and more.